Points of Interest

Kanoni Beach

Walk Distance: ~250m from the harbour

Nestled between Harami Beach and Lakka village, Kanoni offers a quieter alternative with similar beauty. This pebbled beach transitions to sand underwater, giving the sea its signature turquoise hue. Great for a short dip or peaceful sunbathing.

Harami Beach

Walk Distance: ~400m from the harbour

A short stroll from Lakka's harbor leads you to this wide, peaceful bay with soft white pebbles that melt into powdery sand under the waves. Calm waters and gentle tree shade make it a favorite for swimmers and sunbathers alike.

Komeno Beach

Walk Distance: ~900m from the harbour

Venture through the countryside for stunning views over Lakka Bay, ending at Komeno Beach. This secluded spot features white pebbles that shift into soft seabed sand, offering tranquility, swimming, and pure Ionian serenity.

Meattie Buir's Beach

Walk Distance: ~900m from the harbour

Trek through shaded olive groves and narrow paths to uncover a hidden bay with crystalline waters and a sea cave at its edge. Ideal for adventurous walkers and those seeking untouched beauty and total relaxation.

Lighthouse of Lakka

Walk Distance: ~1000m from the harbour

Follow a scenic uphill walk to the historic Lakka Lighthouse, originally built in 1825 and reconstructed in 1919. This stone tower provides breathtaking panoramic views of Paxos's northern coast. Great for sunset photos and peaceful reflection.

Plani (Planos) Beach

Walk Distance: ~1500m from the harbour

Located beneath the lighthouse, Planos is a rocky beach with smooth sea cliffs and pebbled terrain. More suited to nature lovers and explorers than sunbathers, it offers dramatic sea views and a quiet coastal escape.
